THE BREVITY BASKET.
Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.
Charles Murphy was committed to jail in default of bonds yesterday in the police court for outraging a colored woman, named Martha Dorsey, the woman being unable to appear.
A building permit was issued yesterday to Mrs. E. M. Guild to erect two three-story brick dwellings on N street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, northwest, to cost $18,000.
The commissioners have approved the following applications for liquor licenses: William Bagman and Samuel E. Campbell, and have disapproved those of Cassidy & Corley and George McCarthy.
Cornelius Campbell and Green Lightfoot were charged with assaulting and robbing Robert Bias of $10, on Jan. 19, in the police court yesterday, and the case was sent to the grand jury with bonds fixed at $500.
A delegation of druggists called upon the commissioners yesterday and protested against the clause in the new license bill which prohibits druggists from selling liquors except on the order of a doctor.
The first comptroller has decided in the matter of the payment of the fees of the marshal of the district for services in the police court that the fees are payable from appropriations made by congress for the expenses of the district. The marshal should submit monthly accounts to the commissioners.
The commissioners have been advised of the proposed convention to be held in this city on the first Tuesday in February of a large number of delegates from the Mississippi valley to consider matters relating to, and to impress upon the people and their representatives in congress the importance of the improvement of the Mississippi river. The district commissioners will attend, and one of them will welcome the delegates to this city in an address.

A number of gentlemen at a meeting at the residence of Mr. A. A. Hayes, 1717 Rhode Island avenue, enrolled themselves into a volunteer corps to assist the officers of the S. P. C. A. to enforce the laws. Barges will be won by them. Judge MacArthur presided. The following named gentlemen enrolled themselves: Judge MacArthur, Col. Benjamin S. Boutwell, Representative Lyman, of Massachusetts; Gen. Beverly Robertson, Lieut. Selridge, Lieut. Babcock, and Mr. Brown of the navy; Messrs. R. Ross Perry, Jesse Brown, Garnett, Browster, Gordon, Newman, Moore, Slade, Carrington, and Hayes.

"The truth in masquerade" is Byron's term for a lie. But it is the truth, and a masquerade, that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures coughs and colds, and so prevents worse evils that may ensue in death. No cure so speedy.

Suing a Steamboat Company.
Bertha J. Ward yesterday entered suit against the Inland and Seaboard Coasting company, claiming $10,000 damages. The declaration states that the plaintiff was put off the steamer John W. Thompson, owned by the company, at Lancaster's wharf last October, and placed under arrest without cause.

No Christmas table should be without a bottle of Angostura Bitters, the world renowned appetizer of exquisite flavor. For the genuine article manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

Suit for Damages.
Henry Meckel yesterday entered suit against John A. Baker for $3,000 damages. The plaintiff states that he rented house No. 423 Tenth street northwest from defendant, and was willing to carry out his part of the contract, but the defendant did not.

JERSEYS.
Negotiations have been brought to a close, by cable, for a leading foreign manufacturer's stock of Fine Jerseys, valued at $10,000. We offer the first arrivals of these goods, in connection with our old stock, at prices that cannot be offered elsewhere.

Mr. Lisner having been detained in New York, Mr. Ferguson, the Hosiery buyer; Mr. Kenyon, the Gents' Furnishing buyer, and Mr. Bond, the House-keeping Goods buyer, were unable to leave for New York until now; therefore our new stock in these departments will not be exhibited until next week. In the meanwhile we close out what stock we have at half price.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
—IN THEIR—
Annual Closing-Out Sale of Seasonable Fabrics
Offer Extraordinary Inducements to Late Purchasers.

Never have our retail prices been so low as during the fall of 1883. Having however sold two-thirds, three-fourths, or seven-eighths of certain lines of Winter Goods and Fabrics at a profit, we can afford to close out the stock remaining on hand—even at a loss. This we propose to do, and shall quote the prices from day to day which we make in the different departments. For instance, to close out completely our stock of Blankets, which is now not large, we have made the following low prices:

10-4 Blankets, good quality, only $1 per pair. Less than a dozen of this lot.
10-4 Blankets, extra quality, regular price $2; reduced to $1.50 per pair.
25 pairs 10-4 Wool Blankets, reduced from $2.25 to $1.75 per pair.
11-4 Wool Blankets, reduced from $3.25 to $2.50 per pair to close.
Extra quality Fleece-Wool Blankets, would be cheap at $5; selling now at $4 per pair.
10 pairs extra size 12-4 Blankets, reduced from $6 to $5 per pair.

GRAY BLANKETS REDUCED.
10-4, only $2.25; former price, $3.
11-4, only $2.50; former price, $3.50.
Extra quality 10-4, only $3.

COMFORTS, COMFORTS.
Full size, only $1, $1.25, and $1.50 each.

QUILTS, QUILTS.
Small lot extra quality Quilts, 11-4, only $1 each; usual price, $1.25.
Extra super Crochet Quilts, 11-4, only $1.15 each; never before sold less than $1.25, and that was considered very low.
One small lot Domestic Crochet Quilts, full size and extra weight, $1.25 each.

BARGAINS IN COTTONS.
A good yard-wide Brown Cotton, 6¼c per yard.
An extra fine yard-wide Brown Cotton, 8c per yard.
An extra good 4-4 Bleached Cotton, 6¼c per yard.
Superior makes of Bleached Cotton, 8c per yard.
Special bargains in 5-4 Cotton, only 12½c per yard.
One case 8-4 Brown Sheet-ing, only 17c per yard.

LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.
One case 9-4 Brown Sheet-ing, only 21c per yard.
Extra bargain in Heavy and Fine 10-4 Bleached Sheet-ing, only 25c per yard. The best Sheet-ing ever sold for the price.
White Shaker Flannel, former price, 15c; reduced to 10c per yard to close.
White Shaker Flannel, 30 inches wide, heavy and fine, reduced from 31c to 25c.
Red Twilled Flannel, reduced from 25c to 21c per yard.
Red Twilled Flannel, reduced from 29c to 25c per yard.

CHOICE ENGLISH FLANNEL.
We are offering a choice lot of English Royal Anti-Scatica Flannel, of our own importation, at 50, 62½, and 75c per yard, each of which is 25c per yard less than the regular price. The attention of purchasers desiring an extra fine and heavy Flannel is directed to this lot of goods.
